Michelle Leigh Peden

Given the name Michelle Leigh, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Peden Jr. of Gautier was born Jan. 1. Mrs. Peden is the former Doris Sheryl Dickerson.

Well represented

To the Editor:

This past weekend was filled with some very fine athletic competition as the state soccer championships were held in Jackson, Miss.

Soccer is on the rise as a major sporting event in this country. It is a game that requires great skills and agility. There seems to be a lack of interest in this great sport in the Pascagoula area and that's a shame.

There is a lot of young talent going to waste. If parents would take the time to register their youngsters I think they would be surprised at how much they would love the game.

Oh, by the way, Pascagoula's under-12 team won second place in the state tournament this weekend. This was only possible through a fine team effort by a great bunch of youngsters, some very fine coaching, and last but not least, great parental support. See you next season.

Rites held in Gautier church

Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph Lovette

GAUTIER — Shelly Denise Peden became the bride of William Joseph Lovette Nov. 13 in an afternoon ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic Church with the Rev. Bob Higginbotham officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peden Sr. of Gautier and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B.T. Lovette of Pascagoula.

Nuptial music for the double ring, candlelight ceremony was provided by guitarist Troy Parker and organist Kevin Benefield, both of whom also offered vocal selections. Readings were offered by Kenneth Peden Jr., brother of the bride.

Escorted by her father the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight silk organza and Alencon lace, re-embroidered with pearls. The fitted empire bodice featured a Victorian collar, sheer yoke and raised neckline, etched with Venise lace flowerettes. Full bishop sleeves, appliqued with Alencon lace, were cuffed with flowerettes. The A-line skirt extended to a chapel length train, both hemmed with Venise flowerettes. Pearled Alencon lace embellished the bodice and spilled onto the skirt and train. A cathedral length mantilla was encircled with Alencon lace and held by a Camelot headpiece. She carried a bouquet of roses and orchids atop a white fur muff.

Dehon Peden served her sister as maid of honor and other attendants were Kim Smith of Pascagoula, Bridget Sheppard and Linda Anderson of Gautier, sisters of the bride, and Michelle Peden of Pascagoula, niece of the bride.

Henry Hinkel was best man and groomsmen were Marcel Peden, Kline Peden, Billie Sheppard and Rusty Anderson, all of Gautier.

Amanda Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Anderson and niece of the bride, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Jason Moe, son of Susan Moe.

A reception followed at the parish center. On the eve of the wedding, a rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents.

Bridget Ann Peden became the bride of Billie Joe Sheppard Jr. in early July at Our Lady of Victories Catholic Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Peden Sr. of Gautier, and Mrs. Alan Sherman of Peabody, Mass., and Billie J. Sheppard Sr. of Pascagoula.

The candlelight double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry McElhenny.

The church was decorated in greenery and fresh flowers in rainbow colors. In the center of the altar was a 14 arched candalabrum with garlands of greenery.

On each side of the altar were tree candalabra with swags of polished greenery. White urns held arrangements of gladioli and daisies. White satin ribbons marked each pew.

The couple knelt on a white, satin covered prie dieu and a program of music was presented by Mrs. Farrell of Moss Point.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an heirloom gown which her sister had worn in her wedding and which each of her sisters will wear when they are married.

The gown was a formal candlelight silk organza and Alencon lace, re-embroidered with pearls. The fitted empire bodice featured full bishop sleeves and a high neckline with a sheer yoke and a stand up collar.

The full A-line skirt extended into a chapel length train. Alencon lace and pearls accented the bodice, cascading onto the skirt, with appliques highlighting the sleeves, skirt and train.

Venise lace flowerettes outlining the neckline, cuffs and hem of the skirt and train were scattered over the gown. Her cathedral length mantilla was encircled with matching Alencon lace and held by a Camelot head piece.

The bride carried a cascade of white roses and baby's breath. Streamers of white lace and pearls flowed from the bouquet.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Linda Anderson of Pascagoula, as matron of honor. Miss Robin Herndon of Gautier served as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Clare Furr of New Orleans, Miss LeAnne Strange of Ocean Springs, Miss Jeannie Linder of Gautier and Miss Shelly Peden, sister of the bride. Miss Dehon Peden, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identical gowns of rainbow colors in embroidered eyelet and polyester. They were princess style with ruffles around the neck and hemline with matching satin ribbons around the waist which tied in the back. In their hair they wore silk flowers in the color of their dresses.

Serving as flower girls were Brandi Austin, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Austin of Pascagoula, and Ashley Hall, cousin of the bridegroom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Lucedale.

Thomas Austin, cousin of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Austin, and Cort Peden, nephew of the bride and son of Mrs. Steve Vickers of Moss Point and Kenny Peden of Los Altos Hills, Calif., served as ring bearers.

Tony Sheppard served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were David Lee, Ricky Cain, Doug Hart, James Hart and Tommy Clark, all of Pascagoula, and John Hall of Lucedale.

Ushers were Marcel Peden, brother of the bride, and John Christian Hall, cousin of the bridegroom and son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hall.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece mauve polyester knit full length gown with a crystal belt highlighting the dress. Silver accessories complemented the outfit.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece formal gown of Qiana in a turquoise color. Gold accessories completed the outfit.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Elks Lodge. Mrs. Hazel Klatt registered guests as they entered. Mrs. Goldie Roane, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Mary Brown, aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake.

Miss Donna Martin, cousin of the bride, presided over the champagne fountain. Mrs. June Ricks, aunt of the bride, served the groom's cake. Miss Theresa Ricks and Mrs. Liz Austin also helped serve.

Jimmy Martin, uncle of the bride, attended the cocktails.

Miss Michelle Peden, niece of the bride and daughter of Mrs. Steve Vickers and Kenny Peden, was the rice girl.

Music was provided by Ronnie Tolar, Johnny Mire and Max Russell.

For a wedding trip to Daytona Beach and Disneyworld the bride selected a white cotton skirt with a matching two-tone shirt of blue and green polyester. The outfit was completed with gold accessories.

On Friday night the bridegroom's father hosted a rehearsal party for the members of the wedding party, the bride's parents and grandparents.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roane of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Sheppard Jr., Mrs. Hazel Parham, and Mrs. Jimmy Brown of Mobile; Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Martin Sr. of Grand Bay, Ala.; Mrs. Charles Brown and family of Lucedale, and James Kelly of Hattiesburg.
